IN AND ABOUT TOWN

News and Gossip of Wash-ton and Washingtonians Tersely Told.

Goblins, ghosts, and many other strange creatures will abound at Takoma Park tonight. Merriment and innocent revelry, and the joy of living, will be found there.
For, in addition to the usual and garden variety of Halloween pranks, the Men's Club of Takoma, a parish is making extensive preparations for its annual masquerade.
Ed C. Muth is in charge of the arrangements, and promises many novel and entertaining features. Prizes will be awarded for the best costume.
The masquerade on the night of the hobgoblins will be held in the Parish Hall of Trinity Parish. The Rev. Frederick William Smith is rector of Trinity.

Mrs. Sanger Coming Here.
Unless her plans are interfered with as a result of her arrest in New York last week, while she was conducting a birth control clinic, Mrs. Margaret Sanger will give a lecture in Washington under the auspices of the Washington Birth Control Society, in the latter part of November. Mrs.
Sanger's lecture in Washington, it was announced today, will be similar to that delivered here last spring, when she confined herself to a plea of the statutes prohibiting of birth control.

TAG DAY TOMORROW
WILL AID THE BABIES

Fifty Girls to Collect Funds for the Holy Name Day
Nursery.

Fifty young ladies, armed with smiles and tags, will occupy the corners, streets, office and Government buildings all day tomorrow and on every visitor who gives a dime, quarter or even a "jingle" will pin a tag, showing he has subscribed to the Holy Name Day Nursery.
For tomorrow is "tag day" for the Holy Name Day Nursery. The authorities of the nursery will try to raise a subscription from Washingtonians sufficient to meet expenses for the coming year.
The work this nursery has been doing is well known to Washington residents.
During the daytime, while their mothers are at work, many little babies are kept, entertained and fed, in order that their mothers may go to work free from worry about their children. The Ursuline sisters are in charge of the day nursery work.

Sees a Real Snake in His Beer, Signs the Pledge

GREENSBURG, Pa., Oct. 31.—John Blovetsky saw a real snake after including in the cup that cheers, and came to Greensburg to sign the pledge.
Last Friday he purchased a keg of beer and invited friends to a party that evening. Some of the guests said the "snake" had an unfamiliar taste, and they decided to draw the beer in bottles.
As the last bottle was being drawn, out dropped a three-foot snake. The party adjourned.

Henry Ford Visits Bandit
Who Robbed a Pay Car

DETROIT, Oct. 31.—James Walton, leader of the bandit gang that robbed a pay car of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company of $23,000 here on August 4, pleaded guilty upon arraignment in justice court yesterday.
Before going to court, Walton received a visit from Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer. Neither Walton nor Mr. Ford would discuss their conference. Walton was married a few months ago, and it is believed that Ford offered employment to Mrs. Walton.
